

LIFE STYLE

“... RENOUNCE IMPIETY AND WORLDLY PASSIONS, AND IN THE PRESENT AGE TO LIVE LIVES THAT ARE SELF-CONTROLLED, UPRIGHT, AND GODLY, WHILE WE WAIT FOR THE BLESSED HOPE AND THE MANIFESTATION OF THE GLORY OF OUR GREAT GOD AND SAVIOUR....”

Behave in everything agreeably to sound doctrine.

Aged persons are apt to be peevish and fretful; therefore need to be on guard. Though there is not expression for every word, or look, yet there are general rules, according to which all must be ordered. Aged men be sober; not thinking that the decays of nature will justify any excess; but seeking comfort not from any undue indulgence. Faith works by, and must be seen in love.... Older women likewise are to be reverent in behavior, not malicious gossips nor enslaved to much wine, teaching what is good Young women must be sober and discreet; for many expose themselves to fatal temptations by what at first might be only want of discretion.... Young men are apt to be eager and thoughtless, therefore must be earnestly called upon to be sober-minded; there are more young people ruined by pride than by any other sin. Every godly man's endeavour must be to stop the mouths of adversaries. Let thine own conscience answer for thine uprightness. What a glory is it for him, when that mouth which would fain open it against him, cannot find any evil in him to speak of!
